

The Principal Writes...

As the academic year 2017-18 draws to a close, it is the time for retrospection on the challenges and experiences that each and every one of us has gone through with our children. As the Diaspora is passing through an ever crucial phase, the decisions are to be instigated more judiciously with our children at the focal point as future lies on them. Allow your child to see the infectious spirit to learn and question more about our world. Permit them to shoulder ample responsibilities in life so as to enable them to emerge as independent individuals with confidence and self-esteem.

The School in its level is deep rooted and well prepared to cater the diversified educational needs of our community against all the existing odds with an ever more ease and spirit. Let us strive together in encouraging, nurturing and developing our children’s potentials to bring out the best in them.

Winds of change

Every new dawn brings a fresh chance, it brings new hope, every end has a new beginning. We are at the cusp-the threshold of the new academic year.

‘Just when the caterpillar thought her life was over, she began to fly’. The butterfly is a symbol of transformation, moving from the conceptual stage of the cocoon to the full glory of its manifestation. New beginnings are of a similar kind. Every beginning brings forth a metamorphosis, a change. Change is a requisite of substantive progress in new opportunities. Unless one changes, venturing into new rewarding opportunities remains a fantasy. The secret of change is to focus all your energy, not on fighting the old, but on building the new. So let’s bid adieu to our pitfalls and setbacks and surge ahead valiantly to resolve the issues that befell on us. Embrace the end as a new beginning and with faith and confidence keep moving in the direction of your dream. Chase your dreams. “If you can’t fly then run, if you can’t run then walk, if you can’t walk then crawl but whatever you do, you have to keep moving forward.”

The journey doesn't start at the beginning. It starts at the end.

Au Revoir Seniors !!!

With the academic year coming to an end, it was time once again to bid adieu to another batch of exuberant students of grades X and XII. Clad in formal attire, the 12th and the 10th graders were the cynosure of attention, trying their best to conceal their emotions behind radiant smiles. It was indeed a nostalgic event down the memory lane, with students and teachers reminiscing about the wonderful bygone years. The enervating dance performances by the children of grade IX and XI, to peppy numbers livened up the entire atmosphere.

“The future stretches before you, waiting for you to create the work of art that will become your life.” Fare thee well children!!! The best is yet to be...
